History The area was occupied by Roman period in the 1st century AD, as was demonstrated in a series of remains of Roman and pre-Roman period. A small fort was built during Roman rule. Harem is the seat of the agricultural city Qala'at Abbas, located along the Nile in ancient Edfu, a very important site of Upper Egypt. It is also home to the archaeological site of Edfu. The city was known as an important place of pilgrimage and religious significance throughout much of the history of Egypt. This is proven by the fact that it had up to 5,000 workers in ancient times. After the conquest of Egypt by the Arabs, the 2d92ce491b
