It's a creative, progressive, innovative city, which offers world-class cultural opportunities, entertainment and leisure, and a comfortable, safe and welcoming place to live. Much of the centre is pedestrianised, so there's no reason why you can't walk round the entire city, just don't expect it to be easy! The city's parks are great for a picnic, as is the Old Town, where you'll find bars, cafes, pubs, shops and galleries. There's a wealth of modern and interesting architecture, such as the recently refurbished Scottish Parliament and the newly built Scottish Film Theatre, as well as ancient attractions such as the medieval St Giles' Cathedral and the Royal Yacht Britannia. The city boasts Edinburgh's oldest building, Old Edinburgh Town, built in the early 13th century, and its finest structure, the 17th century Scottish Parliament Building. The city's parks and urban spaces also boast several fine examples of modern architecture, and Edinburgh's Museums and Galleries Quarter is well worth a visit. Edinburgh has a thriving food
